

March-08

File Name	Borough	Application Purpose	Description	Grant Length	Total Grant
Aim One: To improve employment opportunities for disadvantaged people
Action Acton  http://www.actionacton.com	Ealing	£30,000 in year one and £20,000 for the first six months of the second year, towards the costs of a BAME employment project.	Action Acton is a development trust established to tackle poverty and disadvantages in Acton area of the London Borough of Ealing. It runs a number of education and training programmes for the local unemployed, including ex-offenders.	2	50,000
Bromley By Bow Centre	Bromley	(being £20,000 in each year) towards the Women's Capability Project which will help the employability of Somali and Bangladeshi women.	Bromley by Bow Centre is a custom built facility which provides a range of services on health and social welfare, education and training, and employment to residents of Tower Hamlets and the surrounding area. The Foundation has provided funding towards its Women's Capability programme of support and training which specifically targets Bangladeshi and Somali women to increase their skills and improve their employment and earning potential.	2	40,000
Carers of Barking and Dagenham  http://www.carerscentre.org.uk	Barking & Dagenham	being £19,354 in Year One and £19,935 in Year Two, towards the Improving Life Skills project.	Carers of Barking and Dagenham provides support to people who care for a close relative or friend with a long-term illness or disability. Its service include welfare rights advice, advocacy, training, counselling, respite care and social activities. CPF is funding a new programme to help carers reliant on benefits to access training and move towards employment.	2	39,289
Dress for Success	Islington	over two years, £15,000 in each year towards rent.	Dress for Success helps disadvantaged women move from financial dependence to economic independence. DFC is a direct service provider of personal empowerment and clothes are the entry point it uses to gain women's trust.	2	30,000
Hammersmith and Fulham Community Law Centre	Hammersmith & Fulham	£37,500 in year one and £39,000 in year two, towards the salary and on-costs of an Employment Lawyer.	The Law Centre provides free legal advice, assistance and representation on social welfare for those unable to afford private legal representation. It has built up an excellent reputation for partnership work and well regarded by other law centres.	2	76,500

Heart n Soul http://www.heartsoul.co.uk	Lewisham	(£20,000 per annum) to improve the employment opportunities of people with learning disabilities through I Did That, a part-time accredited cultural industries production training scheme. The Grants Committee also approved a grant of £20,000 towards an external evaluation of I Did That and Spare Tyre's Go inc. to Work, Careers in Performing Arts.	Heart 'n Soul is an arts organisation offering creative opportunities to people with learning disabilities. A programme of inter-related activities including touring performances, clubs, training and an extensive programme of workshops, provides a ladder of opportunity for people with learning disabilities to realise their talents. The Foundation has provided funding to improve the employment opportunities of people with learning disabilities through I Did That, a part-time accredited cultural industries production training scheme. Participants will specialise in industry-recognised roles such as sound engineer, lighting designer, stage management, or front of house host. They will be trained by relevant professionals who have experience as trainers, offered work experience to find employment. The Foundation has provided funding towards an evaluation of two projects it is funding, whose focus is on improving the employment opportunities of people with learning disabilities.	3	80,000
Island Advice Centre	Tower Hamlets	over two years, being £25,000 in each year, towards the cost of an advice worker training project.	Island Advice Centre provides a range of advice services for resident living in or around the Isle of Dogs including welfare benefit support, advice on housing and accommodation, employability training and through an established volunteer programme. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of its advice worker training project which trains volunteers to become accredited advice workers thereby helping them to secure paid employment in the advice-giving sector.	2	50,000
Kilburn Youth Centre http://www.kilburnyouthcentre.org.uk		over three years, £15,000 in each year, towards the salary and on-costs of the Seriously Skilled Worker.	Kilburn Youth Centre works with young people 25 years old and under in Kilburn and the surrounding areas. The Foundation has provided funding for a worker to work with the young people.	3	45,000
London Citizens http://www.londoncitizens.org.uk	Tower Hamlets	over three years (£40,000 per annum) towards the salary and running costs of a Living Wage Organiser.	London Citizens is a diverse community alliance comprising faith groups, student groups, trades unions and community agencies organising for change. Recent campaigns include the regularisation of undocumented migrants, housing, and the living wage. The Foundation has provided funding to continue and develop its Living Wage campaign through the employment of a full-time Living Wage organiser. The campaign argues that the current minimum wage does not provide enough income for workers and their families to live on, and should therefore be set at a higher rate. The campaign funded by the Foundation will particularly target higher education institutions.	3	120,000

London Ethnic Minorities Deaf Association	London-wide	over two years (being £25,052 in Year One and £26,43 in Year Two) towards the cost of its BAME Deaf employability empowerment programme.	London Ethnic Minority Deaf Association provides drop-in advice for Deaf people from BME communities on welfare rights, health services, training and employment. It also organises consultation events and training to support professionals to ensure their services are meeting the needs of this group of people. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of a training programme which includes job placements, to help Deaf people from BME communities access employment opportunities.	2	51,484
Octopus Community Network	Islington	being £30,000 in each year, towards the costs of the Career Orienteer Project.	Octopus Community Network is a consortium of local community associations. It was formed to build on local knowledge, experience and make better use of resources for the benefit of local residents.	2	60,000
Peter Bedford Housing Association	Hackney	(being £20,000 in each year) as a contribution to the Work Essentials project for people with learning disabilities and mental health issues.	Peter Bedford Housing provides a range of services for socially excluded people including homeless people and those with a disabilities and mental health issues. It provides supported housing to over 250 people, a training enterprise scheme, employment support, a community café and is an accredited centre for NVQ training in catering and hospitality, retail and administration. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of its Work Essentials programme which aims to provide structured training and support coupled with work-based placements for people with mental health issues and other disabilities to help them secure paid employment opportunities or further training.	2	40,000
Refugees into Jobs	Harrow	£40,000 in each year, towards the costs of an employment, training, information, advice and guidance project for refugees in west London.	Refugees into Jobs is an established training provider for refugees living or working in the London Boroughs of Brent And Harrow. It provides information, advice and guidance on training and employment for refugees.	2	80,000
Shoreditch Tabernacle Baptist Church	Tower Hamlets	(being £10,000 per annum) as a contribution to the salary of the Tab Centre Manager to run the Just Start project (two days a week) to help female offenders into employment.	The Tab Centre provides a range of community based services, including health surgeries, advice on welfare benefits and accommodation to help those most disadvantaged in the Tower Hamlets area including homeless people and older people. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of its Just Start project which aims to provide support and employment training for female offenders to help them into paid employment.	3	30,000

Aim Two: To promote the inclusion of recent arrivals to the UK

Chinese Information and Advice Centre	Westminster	(being £20,000 in each year) towards the costs of a Refugee and Asylum Support Co-ordinator and Support Worker and running costs for a Refugee Advice Support service.	Chinese Information and Advice Centre provides services for the benefit of the Chinese community including legal advice and representation, advice on welfare, health, housing and resettlement issues, and dedicated support for Chinese women who have experienced domestic violence. It also has a refugee and asylum seeker support programme and offers translation services in both Mandarin and Cantonese. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of a Co-ordinator and Support Worker as part of its Refugee Advice Support Service which includes advice on immigration and settlement.	2	40,000
Congolese Refugee Womens Association	Newham	being £30,000 in each year, towards the salary of the Project Co-ordinator and running costs.	CRWA is a user-led group supporting African women in East London, especially French-speaking and Somali. Its work includes immigration and social welfare advice, advocacy and health promotion. CPF has provided a grant for the Co-ordinator's Salary	2	60,000
Enfield Citizens Advice Bureau	Enfield	towards the Reaching Out project, including the salary of an Outreach Advice Officer and running costs.	Enfield CAB is a member of the Citizens Advice national network, providing information and advice to the public on legal and welfare rights. CPF is funding a new outreach advice service for migrants from EU Accession countries, especially Poland.	1	49,350
Hillingdon Law Centre	Hillingdon	£20,000 in each year, towards the salary and associated costs of an asylum welfare worker.	Hillingdon Law Centre provides free legal help, advice and representation to the disadvantaged and poor of outer West London in area of social welfare law. A high % of services users are refugees and asylum seekers.	3	60,000
Ice and Fire	Tower Hamlets	to develop, launch and rollout a documentary play entitled The Illegals, comprised of first-hand accounts of undocumented migrants living and working in London.	Ice and Fire creates theatre productions exploring stories of displacement and conflict. It also manages Actors for Refugees which is a professional network of over 300 actors and musicians dedicated to drawing public attention to the harsh realities faced by individuals who come to the UK to seek refuge. The Foundation has provided funding to develop, launch and roll-out a documentary play entitled The Illegals, comprised of first-hand accounts of undocumented migrants living and working in London. Through this work Ice and Fire is attempting to combat the negative tide of public opinion towards undocumented migrants, in particular by supporting the campaign for regularisation. The play will be staged in a number of different community settings.	1	19,070

<http://www.iceandfire.org.uk>

Off The Record	Croydon	toward (being £16,000 in each year) as a contribution toward the salary of a Young Refugee Mental Health Co-ordinator, running costs and evaluation.	Off the Record Croydon provides service for young people including a drop-in advice service, one-to-one therapy counselling and group therapy. It helps provide support and guidance on a range of issues including sexual and reproductive health, drugs and alcohol use, mental health issues, housing and welfare advice. The Foundation has provided funding towards a dedicated mental health project for young refugees and asylum seekers which seeks to improve their mental health and well-being through qualified counsellors and sign-posting to other health and welfare services.		48,000
Refugee Therapy Centre	London-wide	over two years (being £15,000 in year one and £12,000 in year two) towards the costs of delivering counselling skills training for refugees.	Refugee Therapy Centre provides a range of therapeutic counselling and support to refugees and their families who have experienced trauma. It also runs an introductory counselling course on refugees. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of its introductory counselling course on refugees.	2	27,000
Space KC	Kensington and Chelsea	£30,000 in each year, towards the cost of work with migrant sex workers.	Space KC is a London based young people's sexual health charity, operating in the Earl's Court area. It works with young people, particularly those involved with drugs, alcohol abuse and in the sex industry.	2	60,000

Aim Three: To promote social justice

Age Concern Camden  http://www.ageconcerncamden.org.uk	Camden	over three years, £5,500 in year one and £5,250 in years two and three, towards the costs of campaign and lobbying work of older LGBT.	Age Concern Camden supports the needs and interests of older people in the LB of Camden. It offers a range of services and project to support, inform advise and inspire older people in the borough. It values the participation of older people at all level.	3	16,000
Barbara Melunsky Refugee Youth Agency	Lambeth	(being £20,000 per annum) for the part-time salary of a Development Worker on the condition that a satisfactory work plan for the first and subsequent years is submitted to CPF prior to the release of the grant in years one, two and three.	Barbara Melunsky Refugee Youth Organisation provides a meeting place and resource centre where young refugees can meet and take part in a range of activities including youth fora, research, recreational activities and cultural events. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs its part-time Development Worker to help organise and co-ordinate its current activities and to help facilitate greater youth leadership and networking among young refugees and youth groups.	3	60,000
Centre for Corporate Accountability  http://www.corporateaccountability.org	Hackney	(being £25,000 in each year) towards policy work, particularly in relation to London.	CCA supports families bereaved from work-related injury and promotes safety enforcement and corporate criminal accountability. Funding from CPF will support its policy and campaigning work to improve working conditions in London, reduce the number of work-related deaths and injuries, and increase accountability of those responsible.	2	50,000

Children's Society  http://www.childrensociety.org.uk	Newham	towards the Hidden Children research project.	The Children's Society works particularly with refugee children, young runaways at risk on the streets, disabled children and children in trouble with the law. It runs 65 local projects across England, which feeds into national research, policy and campaigning work. CPF is part-funding new research into children which have been brought to the UK from abroad, are in the care of someone who is not their parent or usual carer, and are exploited or ill-treated.	1	15,000
Conflict and Change  http://www.conflictandchange.co.uk	Newham	being £23,250 in Year One and £12,250 in Year Two, towards the Community Conversations project.	Conflict and Change promotes conflict resolution and better cross-community understanding among people and communities in Newham. This is continuation funding for the 'Community Conversations' project, which facilitates contact and discussions about challenging issues between people in the same neighbourhoods but from very different backgrounds.	2	35,500
End Child Poverty  http://www.endchildpoverty.org.uk	Islington	being £35,000 in each year towards the salary costs of a London Child Poverty Campaigner and resources for campaigning activities.	End Child Poverty is a coalition of charities campaigning about the unacceptably high levels of child poverty in the UK. It aims to raise public awareness of child poverty; undertake research and publish reports on child poverty-related issues; campaign on the issue; and lobby government. The Foundation has provided funding to employ a London Child Poverty Campaigner over two years, and resources to undertake campaigning activities.	2	70,000
National Council for Civil Liberties  http://www.liberty-human-rights.org.uk	London-wide	for a campaign to promote and defend the fundamental rights and freedoms currently protected by the Human Rights Act.	Liberty is a campaigning organisation at the heart of the movement for fundamental rights and freedoms in England and Wales. It does this through a combination of public campaigning, test case litigation, parliamentary lobbying, responding in the press, policy analysis and the provision of free advice and information. The Foundation has provided funding towards a campaign to promote and defend the fundamental rights and freedoms currently protected by the Human Rights Act (HRA). The primary objectives of the campaign will be to educate the public about the benefits of the HRA and to persuade the Government not to weaken the level of rights protection currently contained in the Act.	1	35,000
Migrants Resource Centre	Westminster	being £40,000 in year one and £20,000 in year two, towards the Empowerment Co-ordinator and project running costs.	Migrants Resource Centre supports migrants from all communities across London including through immigration and welfare advice, education and employment guidance, ESOL and a crèche. CPF is funding the Empowerment Project which gives migrants a voice and skills to challenge their portrayal in the media.	2	60,000

Aim Four: To strengthen the voluntary community sector

Charities Evaluation Services  http://www.ces-vol.org.uk	Islington	being £52,000 in year one, towards the dissemination of the research, development of new training course on policy and campaigning and a contribution to the training programme, £25,000 in year two, and £10,000 in year three towards the costs of the training programme.	Charities Evaluation Services is the UK's leading provider of information and advice on quality and evaluation systems for the voluntary sector. The Foundation has provided funding towards the dissemination of research on monitoring and evaluation in the third sector; development of a new training course on policy and campaigning; and a contribution to the training programme.	3	87,000
Ealing CVS	Ealing	£24,000 in each year, towards a capacity building programme for small groups.	Ealing CVS is a second-tier organisation, providing support services to local voluntary organisations, including management of a resource centre for smaller groups.	2	48,000
London Voluntary Services Training Consortium	Tower Hamlets	(being £25,000 in each year) for the salary of an Evaluation, Learning and Mentoring Advisor to help develop evaluation skills amongst health-related and disability organisations.	London Voluntary Sector Training Consortium provides training and capacity building skills for voluntary and community groups run for the benefit of socially excluded groups across London. The Foundation has provided funding towards the costs of an Evaluation, Learning and Mentoring Advisor to help strengthen evaluation skills amongst voluntary sector health and disability organizations through structured training and support and through peer networking.	2	50,000

GRAND TOTAL

1,682,193